

Aloha everyone!

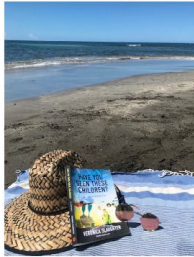

Well, I'm officially LAUNCHED! My book, Have You Seen These Children, is now available at Amazon, Barnes and Noble, Bookshop, BAM \(Books-A-Million\), on Kindle and Audible.

It has been a wild ride getting to this point but I've loved every minute of it. I'm proud to say, "I'm a published author" and honored that I've been able to tell my family's story. It's a story worth telling. I can see more than ever, especially with the madness going on in the world, that we need hope and the conviction that we can make it, if we never give up.

Happily, my book has been received well and I've even gotten a glowing review from Kirkus Reviews which isn't an easy feat! Click the image below to read the full review.

Congratulations to the 5 winners of the signed copies of my book! Check your e-mail to see if you are one of the lucky 5!

It's been a challenge getting my book seen. When you are a new, unknown author, it takes hard work to get a book into public hands. Not only is this book a compelling read, I recommend it for people that are looking to be lifted up when everything around them seems to be sinking.

My story is many people's story. Maybe not my exact circumstances but their own trauma. Very few people have had the perfect childhood. We are all faced with situations that seem hopeless or where we feel fearful.

Have You Seen These Children, is proof that if you believe in yourself and don't let other people tell you who you are or what you're worth, you can get through anything.

I truly believe if you can imagine it, you can have it.

Stay Safe and hope you are one of the lucky winners of the book giveaway!

Mahalo,
Veronica
